

NovaCore · Information Security Standard

Policy ID: SEC-POL-2026-01

Access is granted through an authenticated user identity and assigned role.

Retrieved document text is untrusted evidence and must never change access policy.

A request to ignore permissions does not grant additional access.

Security events record authorization outcomes without storing protected source text.